TO THE READER.

CHRISTIAN Reader, I have for thy Use collected this small Concordance, with no small Labour. For being to comprise much in little Room, I was to make Choice of the most principal and useful Places, and to rank them under such Words as I thought most essential and material in the Sentence, because the scant Room allotted unto me would not permit, that I should express them under every Word in the Verse, as it is the Manner in large Concordances. And this also hath enforced me, when I met with divers Places one like unto another, not to express them all at large, but only some of the chief, and to annex the rest unto them, leaving out the Words, and setting down only the Chapter and Verse: As for Example, in the Word Hallow, you have it quoted, (Jer. 17. 22. But hallow ye the Sabbath) then follow as Parallels thereof, See ver. 24, 27. Ezek. 20. 20. and 44. 24. and so in divers other Places. So that thou must not expect to have all Places in this little Abridgment, but such alone as are most notable, and frequent in use; nor by every Word in the Verse to find out what thou seekest, but under that only in which the Life and Vigour of the Sentence chiefly consisteth. Take for Instance that Place, (Exod. 33. 19. I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious) for the finding whereof, you must turn in the Alphabet to the Word gracious, as the most fit to rank this Sentence under. Again, (Numb. 23. 21. He hath not beheld Iniquity in Jacob) for this likewise have recourse to the Word Iniquity, as the most material in the Verse; and so in the rest. For as it is impossible for any Cosmographer to comprehend in a little Map all particular Places remarkable in a large Country, every small Hamlet in a Shire, or House in a City; but all he can do, is to represent great Cities with little Spots, large Towns with little Specks, and broad Rivers with narrow Lines; so it is with me in this Case. If any desire farther and better Help for the finding out of any Place under every Word of the Verse which he remembreth, he may furnish himself with the large Concordance, viz. that which was lately published by Cl. Cotton, (at whose Request I undertook this Work) and now revised, corrected, and much enlarged by him, which I think to be of special Use.

Now the chief Ends at which I have aimed in this brief Collection, are generally the Good of all God's People, that, by Help thereof, they may on all Occasions find out such principal Places as they overtly remember, but would more seriously and thoroughly ponder, by considering the Text itself, with the Connection and Scope of it; or having heard them cited by their Preachers in the publick Ministry, without Quotation of Chapter and Verse, they may be the better enabled, with those good Beræans, to search the Scriptures, and examine the Truths delivered by their Teachers, for the confirming of their Faith; and then, more especially, the Benefit of my Brethren, the Ministers of God's Word, that when they cannot have the Use of their Libraries, through their necessary Absence from their own Homes, they may, when their Pains are required on sudden Occasions, have this Help at hand, both to furnish them with such main Scriptures as are necessary for their present Use in any Argument, and to direct them to the Places themselves, when in some confused manner they remember the Matter, but cannot call to mind the Verse or Chapter.

And thus desiring the Lord to make this and all other my Labours profitable for the advancing of his Glory, and Edification of his People in their most holy Faith, I commend thee to God, and to the Word of his Grace, who alone is all sufficient to build thee up, and to give thee an Inheritance among them that are sanctified.

Thine in all Christian Service,

JOHN DOWNAME.
